

California Library Association
717 20th Street, Ste. 200
Sacramento, CA 95811
916.447.8541
www.cla-net.org

111th Annual Conference and Exhibition

Don't miss out!

The 2009 Annual Conference will be held in Pasadena from October 30 to November 2. As the premiere continuing education event of the year, the 2009 conference will offer dozens of workshops. Notable speakers at this year's conference include Paula Poundstone, Emmy-award winning comedian and spokesperson for Friends of Libraries U.S.A., and Bill Barnes and Gene Ambaum, authors of the Unshelved News comic strip.

People are Talking!

Here's what some of last year's conference attendees had to say about their conference experience:

- "I found every workshop I attended informative and inspiring."
- "I loved hearing what librarians are DOING in their libraries. I also liked running into fellow classmates!"
- "The best thing was meeting other librarians from all different settings and perspectives!"
- "I thought the career center was a wonderful resource."
- "The author workshops were wonderful!"

Not on CLA's emailing list? Don't miss out!
Send your email address to CLA at info@cla-net.org.

Save-the-Date