JOE MATTHEWS FEATURED AT CLA/TSC PROGRAM

Joe Matthews, consultant, Joe Matthews and Associates, is the keynote speaker for the CLA Technical Services Chapter program at the CLA Annual Conference in San Francisco. The program will be held on Tuesday, December 15, from 10 am to 12:30 pm in the Hilton Continental Parlors 8-9. Mr. Matthews' topic will be a timely one: "Integrating Automated Library Systems." The past decade has seen libraries implement computerized systems for cataloging, circulation, and acquisitions. Our efforts must now be directed toward integrating these individual systems so that they can all "talk" to each other.

Mr. Matthews will be followed by a panel of librarians who will comment on his insights and will offer suggestions concerning system integration based upon their experiences. Panelists include: Amira Lefkowitz, Head, Bibliographic Products Division, Technical Services, UCLA; Pat Barkalow, Principal Librarian for Support Services, Pasadena Public Library; Adrian Long, Assistant to the Director, Claremont Colleges Library; and, Patricia Del Mar, Head, Technical Services, Long Beach Public Library.

This program will be preceded by the CLA Technical Services Chapter annual business meeting in the same location from 8:30-10 am. All chapter members are invited to come promptly at 8:30 for coffee and rolls.

ELECTION RESULTS

The November election saw Sue Metzger elected to the office of Secretary and Agnes Bennett elected to the office of Treasurer for 1982. Sue is Head of Circulation at the UC San Diego Library, and Agnes is Head Catalog Librarian at the CSU Stanislaus Library. Sue and Agnes will join Elizabeth Dickinson, President, from the Stockton/San Joaquin County Library, and Anne Frank, Vice President, from the UC Irvine Library, in forming the 1982 CLA Technical Services Chapter Executive Board.

We wish to thank everyone who ran for office this fall, and wish the new Executive Board all the best in the coming year.
